

WHAT TO DO?

CENTRAL PARK

Central Park is a location where people could rest their mind or hang out with their friends or family.

Central Park has this gigantic field area where there are no trees around but there is grass covering the surface. It also has a giant lake near the field area. While at Central Park, you could do a lot of things like to peaceful picnic or ride a romantic boat around the lake. If your stomach starts to rumble and you want to find something to eat, then central park also has it all. There are food stalls and courts around so you can eat while looking at the gorgeous park

BERGDORF GOODMAN

Bergdorf Goodman is a historic department store company founded in 1899 but it is luxurious and very pricey. It is located in this beloved New York city. This is heaven for all the shoppers who live or travel to New York . Not only that this place has these famous brands like Gucci, Prada,... but there also restaurant for you to eat

LIBERTY HELICOPTER

Have to ever try to observe New York City on a different height? If no or if you would like to experience it again then I would recommend that you take a ride on the liberty helicopters. You should try to contact the Liberty Tour to ride it because this famous tour provides gorgeous views of New York City. You should try to experience this at least once in your life.
